FINDINGS OF FACT AND ORDER
REGARDING WAIVER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

17 In accordance with the Bail Reform Act of 1984, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing
18 was scheduled for March 5, 2008, to determine whether Francisco SALAZAR-Fernandez should
19 be held in custody without bail pending trial and, if convicted, sentencing in the above-captioned
20 matter. Assistant United States Attorney John F. Weis appeared on behalf of the United States.
21 Matthew Hagen of Federal Defenders of San Diego, Inc. appeared on behalf of the Defendant.

22 On March 5, 2008, the Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waived his right, on the record
23 and through counsel, to the setting of bail and a detention hearing. Based on that waiver, the Court
24 orders that Defendant be detained pending trial and, if convicted, sentencing in these matters,
25 without prejudice or waiver of the Defendant's right to later apply for bail and conditions of 26 release, and without prejudice of a waiver of the right of the United States to seek detention in the 27 event of an application by Defendant for such relief.

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Defendant be detained pending trial and, if convicted, sentencing in these matters.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practical, from persons awaiting or serving sentence or being held in custody pending appeal. The Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel.

While in custody, upon order of a court of the United States or upon the request of an attorney for the United States, the person in charge of the correctional facility shall deliver the Defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding or any other appearance stipulated to by defense and government counsel.

This order is made without prejudice to modification by this Court and without prejudice to the Defendant's exercise of his right to bail and a detention hearing at a future date.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
